The Avon Players, a dramatic company, who come with good recommendations, will present Shakespeare's "Macbeth" and the Trial Scene from "The Merchant of Venice," in MacEwen and Stephenson's Hall, Russell, to-morrow (Friday) evening, under the auspices of Russell C. S. Those who are interested in the Shakespearean drama should attend. See advt. on inside page.

Mr. Roy Loucks has moved into the old Rombough house on 2nd Avenue.

Spring house cleaning is now in order, and friend husband is conspicuous by his absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lambert and family have removed to Ottawa, where Mr. Lambert has been employed for some time. We wish them success.

The Football season has opened and the Russell team has entered the Ottawa League. The manager, Mr. H. A. Corbett, is arranging the games for the season. The team gave a good account of themselves last year, and deserve your support.

We have moved into our new premises on Castor St., where we will be pleased to meet old and new customers.

Mr. Trevor Armstrong, who lives a mile north of Vars, having disposed of his farm, will sell his farm stock and implements by public auction, on Monday, May 12th. John W. James auctioneer.

The fine weather of the past few days has encouraged the farmer and seeding is in full swing.

The death occurred at Prescott on Thursday of Mrs. Thos. Irving, wife of Mr. Irving, the one-time auctioneer.

The seeds and plants from the Horticultural Society have arrived and householders are busy laying out their gardens.

Mr. J. C. Hamilton has put in a gas pump and will handle Super-Test gas.

Mr. John Paul has purchased the Arthur Shelp farm in North Russell.

Mr. Ed. Wynn and son, of Kenmore, have purchased the Albert Harrington cheese factory and started operations Monday.

Mr. Geo. Binks returned on Tuesday from a visit to his son in New York City.

Mr. Wm. McArthur leaves today to spend the summer at St. Catharines and the Niagara peninsula.

We are too busy with moving and arrears of work to go out collecting, so we will appreciate it if you will call and see us as we need the money.

Mr. Jas. Eastman has again returned to the village, where he will reside in future. We are glad to have him back, but sorry that his health is the cause of his return.

Shirley Rombough and Raoul Blais, two 12 year old boys, landed a 12 pound fish on Saturday last. Opinions differ as to whether it was a pike or a small lunge, but it was a fine fish anyway.

Mr. Clifford Fetterly, of Smith's Falls spent a couple of days with his father, Mr. Martin Fetterly.

Don't forget the dance on Saturday night. Don Johnston and his orchestra furnish the music. Come and frolic a bit.
