It is with regret that we report that Mr. R. C. Dillabough, principal of the Public School will sever his connection with Russell at the end of the present term. Besides being a most successful teacher, he has proved to be a good citizen. He has secured a similar position in Chesterville during his 17 years here he has established an enviable record, and what will be our loss will be Chesterville's gain. The best wishes of a host of warm friends will follow him and his to their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Latimer, of Ottawa, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kyle.

Mr. Jas. Cochran, of Ottawa, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cochran.

A coat of gravel has been placed on Castor street, which will be appreciated in muddy weather.

A gang of local workmen are busy straightening the Hydro poles and otherwise improving the line.

Mr. Thos. Barrington, of Regina, is spending a few days in town, and looks well. He reports that conditions are much worse in the Western Provinces than in the east.

The warm days are very much appreciated by everybody, but a few showers are needed for the hay crop, which will otherwise be light.

Several cheese factories have paid and while the returns are welcome they are disappointing.

Mrs. Robt. Bunyan, of Carleton Place, is visiting her sisters, Mrs. Jas. Robinson and Mrs. Jas. McShea. She is 83 years of age, but still active and able to be around.

One of the busiest evenings in L. O. L., No. 1095, Vernon, was held on Tuesday evening, when the Royal Scarlet Chapter met in the hall, with about 30 in attendance, and as candidates were present for the Blue and Royal Arch degree, the visiting brethren conferred these degrees. The Royal Scarlet Chapter then convoked and a Royal Scarlet degree was conferred. The members of Vernon lodge served refreshments and a social evening was spent.

A Depression Banquet will be given by the citizens of Russell and vicinity at Gormley's Hotel, Tuesday, June 21st, at 8 o'clock, in honor of our esteemed citizens, R. C. Dillabough and L. W. Stephenson, who are about to leave us. Tickets may be secured from C. F. McArthur, C. H. Stewart, H. H. Shepherd, Hadley Boyd and C. E. McCaffrey. An old time program will be given by local talent.

The Russell Girls Softball team won the Cup at the Junior Farmers Field Day at Kemptville yesterday.

"THE TWO IDIOTS,"

The farce comedy, "The Two Idiots", presented on Friday evening last in the Church Hall by the Y. P. S. of the United Church was a most mirth provoking presentation.

The plot was that of an eccentric ancestor who willed his fortune to his two grandchildren with the understanding that they married each other before they were 22.

He appointed his son, Colonel Bradley as guardian of the pair. This part was taken by Edgar Loucks, while his sister, Miss Lucretia Bradley was represented by Miss Ella Hamilton. The prospective groom, Peter Jennings, was played by Ken Hay, and that of his friend, Dr. Gunter, by Harold Gamble. The bride-to-be, Miss Lester, was Miss Flora Wood and her cousin and the Colonel's daughter, was taken by Miss Edna York.

The young couple, having lived in different localities were averse to marriage with one another, and the Colonel, who was somewhat short in the grain, gets considerably out of patience in his efforts to reconcile the parties. Aunt Lucretia, trying to be helpful, upsets the apple cart, but eventually things smooth out.

The play was one continuous laugh. The young people took their parts well, and showed that conscientious effort had been given to preparation. Mrs. C. H. Stewart, instructor, deserves great credit for the finished production of Friday night.

Between the acts a trio, consisting of violin, piano and accordion rendered southern airs, which went over big.

In this trio we encountered three old friends in new roles, Mrs. Tweed, violin, Mrs. Kyle piano, and Mr. H. H. Shepherd, accordion, and were agreeably surprised. They will no doubt be in demand on many future occasions.

Rev. D. Munro capably discharged the duties of chairman.

We can assure dyspeptics, that if laughter aids digestion, they had better see this play, as it is one long laugh.

As we go to press we learn of the death of Mrs. Albert Marshall, of Vars as the result of a stroke. She had attended a Ladies' Aid Tea last evening and was as well as usual. Deceased, who was in her 39th year, was Miss Hannah Carson, daughter of Mr. J. P. Carson.

Attention is directed to the advt of Y. T. Beattie, optometrist, on another page.

Mrs. M. Hughes, of Ottawa, spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. Reveler.

CARSCADDEN-CARSON

A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday at one o'clock, p. m., in St. Mary's Anglican Church when Miss Edna Carson, second daughter of the late David Carson, and Mrs. Carson was united in marriage to Mr. Willis Kemp Carscadden, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Carscadden, all of Russell.

The church was tastefully decorated with all the spring flowers and Boston Maiden Hair Ferns.

The bride looking charming in a gown of whiteorgette, with veil and orange blossoms, and carrying an arm bouquet of Ophelia roses, entered the church on the arm of her brother-in-law, Mr. M. Reaney to the strains of the Wedding March played by Miss Gertrude Carscadden, sister of the groom. She was attended by her little sister Mabel, a flower girl and the Nuptials were performed by Rev. D. T. Weegar. The choir sang an anthem during the signing of the register.

After the ceremony a dainty lunch was served to the immediate friends of the contracting parties, at the home of the bride's mother.

The young couple left by motor for a short honeymoon at Norway Bay, Guelph, and Western Ontario, the bride travelling in an ensemble of pink crepe with hat, shoes, hose, gloves and accessories to match. On their return they will reside at the groom's farm.

The bride was the recipient of a large number of useful and costly gifts.

The best wishes of a large circle of friends are extended for health, happiness and prosperity.
