TIRED or NERVOUS? Is bile doing its work?

Your liver is lazy, that's why you feel so rotten half the time. Your system is not getting enough bile. Your head aches, your back aches. Your food doesn't digest properly. It stagnates and decays for lack of bile. Bile is a digester and an antiseptic. Your liver should produce 18 to 26 fluid ounces of bile every 24 hours.

Tanol Tablets will make your liver do its work. Based upon a small proportion of Calomel blended with certain other useful medicinal ingredients, Tanol Tablets act promptly and directly upon the liver, stimulating the flow of bile. They are easy to take and provide a safe, easy way of using calomel, probably the most effective liver stimulant known. They are not harsh. But they are efficient. Your druggist has them. 50c. (a)

If Santa Claus of 1937 missed any of the hard hit families of the dried out areas of Saskatchewan, or needy homes in rural sections of the other provinces, it was not the fault of the Boy Scouts and Girl Guides. As their 14th annual national Christmas Good Turn, a coast-to-coast chain of Scout-Guide Toy shops once again provided Old Santa with approximately 100,000 toys, dolls and story books, re-conditioned and practically as good as new, and many thousands of new wooden toys and soft dolls produced in Scout toy plants and Guide studios.

In many centres the Scouts and Guides had the co-operation of moving picture theatre managers, who gave Saturday morning "Toy Shop Matinees," at an admission price of one toy. Local distribution of gifts was made in association with service clubs, the Salvation Army and other welfare organizations.

The special Scout-Guide effort this season was the bulk shipment from toy shops in the other provinces to Saskatchewan, to assist the Saskatchewan Scouts in doing their part toward providing gifts for the approximate 50,000 children of "Santa Claus" age who otherwise would have been missed. For this work the Scout Association divided Saskatchewan into eight toy distribution areas, and the toy shipments were allotted these areas as called for.

The shipments were provided by the toy shops at Sherbrooke, Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto, Hamilton, London, Winnipeg and Calgary. The Scouts of Medicine Hat, in the dry area of southeastern Alberta, were helped in meeting their demands by the Scouts of Calgary, Cardston and Kimberley and Powell River, B.C.

Details of the heroic first aid and other relief work done by Chinese Boy Scouts at Shanghai and other Chinese cities bombed by the Japanese have been hinted at in press despatches and news reels. The International Scout Bureau in London reports more fully as follows:

Despite the grave danger of continued bombing in and around Shanghai, Chinese Boy Scouts carried out their Scout obligation to "help other people at all times." Their services in the hospitals and other places can be looked upon as nothing less than heroic, and under the inevitable danger they still persist in carrying on.

Immediately after high explosives had been dropped on Shanghai, young Scouts began searching for the dead, dressing the slightly injured with bandages improvised from blood-spattered piles of material, and acting as stretcher bearers.

One of these young boys performed a task from which many a grown man would have shrunk. A lift in a building had been halted between the ground and first floors as the explosion cut off power. Blood streamed from the cage, the door of which had been partially opened by some injured person before death had intervened. A ladder was run up to the cage, but the opening was too small for an adult. A Scout went up, hesitated before what he saw, then threw down a pith helmet filled with blood, and performed the gruesome task of removing the dead.

An early morning bombing raid, raining death on Per-hsin-ching village for twenty minutes was another scene described in which Boy Scouts, police and other workers rushed to rescue the wounded. The destruction covered a wide area, and up to a late hour scores of volunteers were still busily engaged in extricating bodies pinned beneath the debris.

Simultaneously, bombing was going on in Chowkachiao in the Jessfield district, and many civilians were killed. Shortly after the raid every available fireman, policeman and Boy

The Age of Talk

It is one of the tragedies of the post-war era that we have had much talk and little action. Conferences which should have been the prelude to more decisive policies have ended in the futility of many words. We have discussed economic difficulties, the problems of war and peace and the menace of rearmament. Our fears have now become facts; economic selfishness has run riot and the threat of war is upon us. The conference method of international diplomacy has failed because nations lacked the will to turn their words into actions.

APPETITE gone?

PHOSPERINE THE GREAT NERVE TONIC

Scout, together with those who had received civic training, were summoned to the scene of terror to rescue the wounded.

Boy Scouts, together with Girl Guides, also are helping in refugee camps, and attending the wounded soldiers in emergency hospitals.

Officials of the French Concession Service Sanitaire found Scouts extremely useful, while still other Scouts were called upon to help look after the crowds of frightened refugee children.

When a group of journalists were being shown through the hospitals in the Chinese territory, and were taken to the Vienna Garden, a dancing hall turned into an emergency hospital, they discovered more Boy Scouts attending the wounded.

Indian Rights Being Defended

If those who write hunting laws made new year's resolution, Phillip H. Godsell, Fellow of the Royal Geographic Society and author, hopes they remembered the forgotten red man whose hunting grounds are slowly being robbed by the white brother with his ingenious ways of earning a dollar.

The tall, broad-shouldered wanderer of Canada's frozen frontier who came to the Dominion from England thirty years ago because he wanted a war bonnet and peace-pipe, today scanned records of northern experience and found one jarring note in songs he could sing of those who live in the land of the snows. And the white man's airplane hummed the most disturbing tune.

Godsell said faith has not been kept by those who signed the treaty with the Indian and swore hunting and fishing would be for as long "as the waters ran and the sun shone."

Through numerous hunting licenses given to white trappers the Indian is steadily being pushed into low morale, poor health and impoverishment, Godsell, who has trekked from Labrador to Alaska and learned to speak six native dialects, declared.

Now Destitute "I know of Indian families thirty years ago who took pride in their ability to derive a living from forests and the stream and be as they thought independent of white men," Godsell said. "Today, I've seen those same families brought to utter destitution by inroads of white trappers and depletion of areas in which they hunted."

Godsell explained the 50,000 Indian men, women and children up north had 15,000 bread-winners whose primitive mode of hunting could not match the white man's mechanical bird nor his other tricks of obtaining a living from animals of northern woods and the fish-lined streams. One of these "diabolical" tricks in trade was use of poison.

COULD HARDLY CLOSE HANDS

Had Rheumatism and Neuritis
"I suffered severely from Rheumatism and Neuritis," writes Mr. W. J. Tracy of Toronto. "I could hardly walk upstairs or close my hands. After taking Fruitatives four days the swelling left my hands and knees. I could climb stairs and ladder. I advise any person suffering as I did to take Fruitatives. They give quick relief." Try this real fruit juice, herb and tonic prescription of a famous Canadian doctor. If you suffer, they might clear up your case too. 25c. and 50c. No substitute. At druggists.

should be restricted in all northern Canada to the Indian and Eskimo population. The white trapper must be eliminated if justice is to be done to the northern Indians and unless they are to become entirely dependent on the taxpayer.

The former Hudson's Bay Company fur-trader sketches a picture of "Indians and their families dependent broken-down, spiritless specimens depravity, totally at a loss to know how to meet economic disaster which they are faced."
