Carrie E. Wynn Weds H. Dougal Campbell

St. Paul's and St. Andrew's United Church, Russell, was the scene of a July wedding at four o'clock on Saturday afternoon, solemnized by Rev. Thomas McNaught, of Miss Carrie Ella Wynn, daughter of Mrs. Wynn and the late Mr. Edward Wynn of Russell, to Mr. H. Dougal Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Campbell, of Ottawa.

Miss Gwendolyn Gaudrigger presided at the organ, and Mrs. Arthur Watson, cousin of the bride, sang "Because" during the signing of the register.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Earl Wynn, and was attended by her sister, Mrs. E. Cecil Adams, Ottawa, matron-of-honor, and by her cousin, Mildred Wynn, Brockville, bridesmaid. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Charles C. Campbell, of Rochester, N.Y. Those attending the guests were Mr. E. Cecil Adams, of Ottawa, and Mr. Claude W. Campbell, of Rochester, N.Y.

A floor-length gown of white over taffeta was worn by the bride. Designed with a fitted bodice, tulle lace insets and a full skirt and a fitted jacket. Her coronet was of white tulle and her veil was of white tulle with roses, acelia and American Beauty shower effect combs in her hair. The bride's honor's gown was of pink net and lace fashioned with a bouffant skirt and a fitted bodice. She was wearing a coronet of blue larkspur and her arm bouquet was of Calla lilies, larkspur and bouvardia. Miss Wynn had chosen a gown of blue chiffon, fashioned with a high neckline, long fitted sleeves and a full skirt.

Her coronet was of white flowers and she carried an arm bouquet of Calla lilies, blue larkspur and bouvardia. Two nieces of the bride, little Misses Shirley Adams, Ottawa, and Phyllis Wynn, of Russell, were flower girls. Dressed alike, they were wearing frocks of blue taffeta and carried bouquets of American Beauty roses and bouvardia.

After the ceremony a reception was held and later the bride and bridegroom left on a short motor trip. They will take up residence at 188 Lake St., St. Catharines.

For travelling the bride donned an ensemble of white crepe with which she wore red and blue accessories.

Out-of-town guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Christie Wynn, of South Mountain; Mrs. Andrew Wynn and Miss Mildred Wynn, of Brockville; Mr. and Mrs. John Queale, of Cornwall; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Craven and Miss Mabel Craven, North Gower; Mrs. Thomas Riddell, Mr. Eldon Riddell and Mr. and Mrs. Empey, all of Mountain; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Campbell and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Campbell, all of Rochester, N.Y.; Mrs. Harold Palmer, Mr. Donald Palmer and Miss Ruth Dashney, all of Ottawa.

WEDDING

BUCKINGHAM—FARROW

At the home of the bride's parents the marriage was solemnized last Wednesday of Miss Marjorie Katherine Farrow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Farrow, of Vanguard, Sask., to William Lloyd Buckingham of Russell, Ont. Rev. F. A. Clare officiated. Under a floral arch of pink and white flowers and before a banking of roses the marriage was solemnized.

Miss Welwyna Clare as the soloist sang "At Dawn."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by Miss Winnifred Farrow as bridesmaid, and Mr. Bruce Saunders attended as best man. A frock of heavenly blue chiffon was worn by the bride. Her accessories were white and her corsage bouquet was of Sweetheart roses and lily-of-the-valley.

Miss Winnifred Farrow wore a gown of Queen's blue sheer with white accessories and her corsage bouquet was of Ophelia roses and Swansonia.

A reception was held following the ceremony and later the couple left on their wedding trip to Clearwater Beach. The bride travelled in a frock of printed crepe with which she wore white accessories. They will reside at Vanguard, Sask.

Out-of-town guests were Rev. F. A. Clare, Miss Welwyna Clare, Mr. Victor Clare, Mrs. C. N. Mullins and Miss Anne Mullins, of Vancouver; Miss Winnifred Farrow, of Regina; Mr. Bruce Saunders, of Regina; and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bell, of Hazelton.

APPRECIATION

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the many acts of kindness, sympathy, floral and spiritual offerings received in our recent bereavement.

—ALICE GORMLEY and Family.
Drudgery is as necessary to call out the treasures of the mind as harrowing and planting those of the earth.

Community Social at Macdougall Park

Russell horticulturists are planning a gala night for their community folk at Dr. Macdougall Park. Anyone who attended last year's first social on the evergreen planted grounds and saw the unveiling of the cairn, will be anxious to keep the evening of July 16th free to meet their old friends, several of whom are now vacationing from the U.S. and distant Canada points.

The "debate" which is to be the evening's special attraction—"Resolved the girls of our grandmother's day were superior to the girls of our day," will be in charge of former residents. Russell Students' Band will again provide the music. These youngsters are to be heard one day at Central Canada Exhibition.

Other items of interest will be talks by Mr. Mcraith, M.P., Ottawa, West, and A. E. Goulet, M.P., Russell County. If weather proves unfavorable July 16th, the social will be held July 18th at 8 p.m.

W. M. S. United Church

The W.M.S. of the United Church at Russell entertained the members of the Baby Band and their mothers, and the members of the Mission Band, at their meeting on Wednesday, July 2nd, at the church hall. Mrs. H. M. Snell, vice-president of the Auxiliary, welcomed the visitors and then Mrs. John Boland, Baby Band secretary, took charge of the meeting. Lantern slides of babies of other lands were shown and several of the mothers took part in explaining the pictures. Mrs. Boland told a story of a missionary and Mrs. McNaught spoke a few words on the "Responsibility of Mothers." Mr. T. K. Gerard, of Ottawa, Presbyterial Secretary, brought the greetings of the Presbytery and spoke on the work of the Band. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served.

Russell Village Women's Institute

A large number of members and visitors attended the July meeting of the W.I. held at the home of Mrs. Jim Hay with Mrs. L. A. Harrington, the president in the chair. After the transaction of routine business Mrs. Tace Wade, convener of Health and Child Welfare, took charge of the meeting. Miss Lowrie read a paper on "Patriotism" which was appropriate for Dominion Day. Duets were sung by Eldon and Kathleen Hay of Marvelville, accompanied at the piano by their mother, Mrs. Geo. Hay. Mrs. Wade gave an interesting report on the 25th anniversary of The Lady Stanley Hospital graduates held at the Chateau Laurier recently. Mrs. Wade also spoke regarding dental clinics in the schools. It was decided to hold sewing meetings each Friday until the quilts were finished. July 4th at Mrs. L. A. MacEwen's and July 11th at Mrs. L. M. Shanks'.

Mrs. Wade tested the intelligence of the audience regarding Home Nursing. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Jim Hay and Mrs. Tace Wade. The August meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Tace Wade on August 5 at 2.30 p.m.
