ALMOST A NON-ESSENTIAL

(Ottawa Citizen) A western editor apologizing for omitting the bridegroom's name from a wedding report, but also failed to mention it in the explanation. There are so many more important things to remember about a wedding, he probably couldn't find anyone who recalled the fellow's name.

Would you count the cost of Freedom in a concentration camp, With soul and body quaking to a Nazi sentry's tramp? Where the shriek of tortured mankind and the hissing of the lash is the Gestapo's 'New Order' for the word or thought that's rash!

Would you count the cost of sparing to that child you love so well A life of Nazi slavery—a Nazi world of Hell? The shadow of the Swastika—a defilement of the Soul. With a Hitler for a God and a Valhalla for a goal!

Would you count the cost of lending every dollar you can save To destroy this Nazi tyranny that would thus your world enslave? If you wouldn't—then it's up to YOU to PLEDGE YOUR SAVINGS NOW With Liberty your future and your children's to endow!

WEDDING

ROMBOUGH—CRAIG

Metcalfe United Church was the setting for an attractive wedding on Thursday at 2.30 p.m. when Miss Ida Emeline Craig, eldest daughter of Harry D. and the late Mrs. Craig, was married to Seeley Wilbert Rombough, of St. Catharines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Rombough, of Russell.

Rev. H. A. Bunt officiated and Miss Vivien Craig, cousin of the bride, played the wedding music. The church was decorated for occasion with delphiniums and ferns.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was wearing a floor-length gown of white silk organza over taffeta, made with full softly pleated skirt and long sleeves. Italian quilting finished the girdle and shoulders and the V neck was held with a clasp of pearls. Her full length veil of embroidered net was arranged with pleated fringe and coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of Sweetheart roses and bouvardia with white satin streamers.

The bridesmaid, Miss Hilda Harrison, of Metcalfe, wore a floor-length dress of orchid silk net with wide lace panels, over taffeta, a small model headdress of flowers and tulle and she carried an arm bouquet of Tallman roses and bouvardia. Little Miss Shirley Baxter, of Ottawa as flower girl, was charming in a floor length gown of pale orchid lace over silk. She wore long lace mittens and a halo of flowers and carried a Colonial nosegay.

The groom was attended by his brother Arnold Rombough, of St. Catharines, and Wesley Rombough, of Kingston, and J. Eldon Craig, of Metcalfe, were ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's father for about seventy guests and later, Mr. and Mrs. Rombough left on a motor trip to Eastern points. For travelling the bride wore a smart crepe ensemble in orchid and lavender, with wide brimmed mohair hat and accessories in the same shades. They will take up residence in St. Catharines.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Rombough, Mrs. M. Burrell, Fort Erie; Mr. and Mrs. D. Rombough, Mr. M. Rombough, St. Catharines; Mr. and Mrs. E. Craig, Stratford; Mr. and Mrs. F.
