The public is invited.

Visits

Elizabeth Cleaver, author of children's books and one of Canada's foremost illustrators of books for children, visited the Russell Public School and talked about her books using slides to illustrate them.

At a later date, Rick Avery delighted the children with a demonstration of Home-Made Music.

Cecile Gagon, author and illustrator from Quebec, visited the Russell Separate School, explained how a book was made and how she went about writing and illustrating her books.

It Doesn't Figure

Now for the $65,000 question? What's the population of Russell Village.

The sign at the village's west entrance reads 775, everybody knows that's too low.

Russell Township Clerk Jean-Guy Bourdeau says the figure is about 900. A lot of people including township Roads Superintendent Lucien Millaire think that's off base as well, Mr. Millaire thinks it's at least 1,200.

Whatever the true total isn't it about time to pin it down and post it.
