

CASTOR CUPBOARDS

TEAN CAMPBELLS ALL-CANADIAN PANCAKES

Tean came to Russell from Clinton, Ontario to be office nurse for Dr. Kinnaird, where she met her future husband, Robert Campbell, who was driver for Dr. Kinnaird in the winter months with horse and cutter.

with Margot McCallum

1-1/2 cups of flour
3 tsps. baking powder
1/2 tsps. of salt
1/4 tsps. of vanilla
3 tbsps. white sugar
1 egg
1-1/4 cup of milk
3 tbsps. melted butter

MIX LIGHTLY; DROP BY SPOONFUL ON HOT LIGHTLY BUTTERED FRYING PAN OR GRIDDLE.

Breakfast: Put away the toast and juice, take your made-ahead pitcher (for easy pouring) of Tean's pancake batter from the fridge. Cook as directed. Stack and serve with one-half cup or more fruits of the season; strawberries, raspberries, blueberries, crushed and/or sliced.

Lunch: Thin batter slightly. Cook as directed. Keep warm—fill and roll for crepes with any of the following: moist cooked ham and chives, cooked chopped chicken or celery.

Dessert: Cook above batter in silve dollar size. Stack with jelly and/or cream cheese between.

Any and all of the above are tasty with good Canadian Maple Syrup.

Scratch almost any Campbell around Russell and you will find a relative of Bob and Tean's. Tean is an active Women's Institute member, a valued member of Russell United Church; she is also known for her beautiful apple head dolls, and copper-work.
