"Aixelsyd"

Are you one of the many who doesn't know the meaning of Dyslexia? Dyslexia is a learning disability whereby children perceive shapes and sounds differently, confuse letters, form letters backwards and have difficulty with coordination and memory.

If you are interested in learning more about dyslexia, you are invited by the Russell Village Women's Institute to hear a speaker from the Ottawa chapter of the Association for Children with Learning Disabilities. The meeting will be held Tuesday, Jan. 6 at the Anglican Church Hall at 8:30 p.m. For more information contact Mrs. Judi Hubbard at 445-5334.
