Chester Cherry

Death calls on eve of 60th

Just two days before he and his wife were to celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary at the Russell United Church Hall, death took Chester Cherry, from his home in the Senior Citizens' Residence. He suffered a fatal heart attack.

He was taken to hospital by ambulance and died shortly after arrival.

Mr. Cherry was born in Russell in 1900. He married Edythe Fader at Marvelville on March 30, 1921.

After farming north of Russell for many years they moved to Ottawa. They returned to Russell when Mr. Cherry retired. They have been active in the community and the United Church where Mr. Cherry sang in the choir.

Maynard Cherry of Russell is a son. A daughter, Mrs. William McKeown lives in Edwards, another, Mrs. Clayton Elliott in Ottawa, and a third, Mrs. Paul Parlee, in Powassan, B.C.

Dear Friends;

I would like to take this opportunity to thank each and everyone for all the encouragement extended to me. I would like you to know that I appreciate it and thanks to you, my business is doing well. I will continue to provide you with good service and offer a good selection of the latest fashions.

Spring is here and the beautiful weather is just around the corner. Our new spring stock has arrived and we invite you to come in and browse and try on our new styles in clothing. As you know everything is Western. In our store you will find a variety of Western shirts, jeans, hat and of course boots.

For the ladies we have a wide variety of suits and assorted blouses.

We also do alterations.

Once again I would like to thank you for your patronage.

Yours truly,

René Dubé
