Harten and Moffat wed in Fall ceremony

Russell United Church was the scene of a pretty fall wedding Saturday, October 24th, when Dorothy Irene Moffat, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Moffat of Bearbrooke was united in marriage to Daryl Ross Harten, son of Mrs. Marion Harten and the late Glen Harten of Russell.

Rev. Kenneth McLaughlin performed the ceremony and Mrs. Douglas Cherry was organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked charming in a floor length, long sleeved gown of white chiffon over taffeta with low neckline, full skirt with a short train with lace and pearl trim. Her illusion veil was fingertip length with small lace headpiece. She carried red and white roses and baby's breath.

The maid of honor, Miss Kathy Armstrong of Russell, and bridesmaid, Miss Karen Whitehorn of Kemptville wore floor length gown of royal blue with draped bodice, pleated skirts and elbow length sleeves. They carried royal blue carnations with baby blue and white daisies and baby's breath and matching baby blue carnations in their hair.

Junior bridesmaid, Miss Cynthia Moffat, sister of the bride was dressed in a floor length, baby blue gown, ruffle trim at neck, down the front of the dress and at hem and short puffy sleeves. She wore a half halo of baby blue baby's breath in her hair. Her flowers were similar to those of the other attendants.

The groom was assisted by Edward Honey of Russell as best man. Ushers were Barry Moffat, brother of the bride and Gaetan Forgues of Russell. The men wore three piece black suits, white shirts with black bow ties.

Among the guests were grandparents, Mrs. Harold Harten of Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Tanner of Carlsbad, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Moffat of Ottawa and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cameron of Maxville. The young couple are residing in Russell.

Victoria la scandaleuse

Tel est le titre d'une biographie disponible maintenant à la Bibliothèque municipale d'Embrun.

Pouquoi l'a-t-on surnommée ainsi?

La presse d'alors l'a surnommée ainsi parce qu'elle défendait les causes les plus impopulaires et les plus dérangeantes.

Qui était-elle?

Victoria Woodhull (1838-1927)

fut l'un des personnages les plus populaires des Etats-Unis à la fin du XIXe siècle.

Elle fut une championne des droits de la femme et la première femme "broker" à Wall Street. Elle fonda un journal à New York qui atteignit 100,000 exemplaires. Elle se présenta candidate à la présidence des Etats-Unis contre le Général Grant et obtint 5% des voix; ceci à un temps où les femmes n'avaient pas encore le droit de vote.

Cette biographie pleine d'actions violentes et passionnées vous fera découvrir une personnalité hors du commun.

Voici quelques autres biographies que vous trouverez également à la bibliothèque:

Entre l'amour et la haine, Paolo Noel; Ma vie comme rivière, Simonne Monet-Chartrand; Guy Lafleur, mon fils, Rejean Lafleur; et, Le légendaire colonel, Harland Sanders.
