

With the coming of fine weather, Clarence Prescott can often be seen on the roads around Metcalfe giving his prize team of Shetland ponies a workout. The ponies, which are very powerful for their size, pull a covered chuckwagon. Clarence enters the ponies in local parades and gives kids wagon rides at local fairs.

It was a fine summer Saturday in Russell and members of the Horticultural Society showed up to get a flat of flowers. But there was more, flowers of all shapes and sizes were for sale. Springtime browsers, above, check the tops, bottoms and all sides of the plants before making a purchase. Look for these blooming flowers soon.
