4-H NEWS The 4H Homemaking Club Achievement Day was held at Riverview Public School, Cumberland, on Saturday, May 3rd. Thirty-two girls from Russell, North Russell and area, completed the Spring Project "Clothes for Leisure". Many types of beautiful leisure wear were made by the girls ranging from caftans, housecoats, pyjamas and nightgowns, to shorts, halters, slacks, bib overalls, long skirts, blouses, leisure type shirts and short skirts with co-ordinating tops, all made from many types of fabrics.

Cathy McNeil, Brenda Prevost, Sandra McNeil and Susan Young of Russell Club No. 1, under the leadership of Mrs. Baird McNeil and Miss Ina Bols, presented an exhibit entitled "Trims with Imagination".

Beverley Cherry, Brenda Boothe, Linda Weatherall and Janet Graham of Russell Club No. 2, under the leadership of Mrs. R. W. Gamble and Miss Beverley Cherry, presented a skit entitled "Choosing Fabrics".

Brenda Latimer, Mary Ann Bols, Rose Marie Bols, Diane Latimer, Karen Latimer, Marlene Shirley, Maureen Shirley and Wilma Nyenkamp of Russell Club No. 3, under the leadership of Mrs. Hugh Latimer and Miss Brenda Latimer, presented an exhibit entitled "Fabrics and Finishes".

Joan Hamilton, Donna Dugdale, Nancy Flay, Lynn Otto and Mrs. Shirley Vedder of North Russell Club No. 1, under the leadership of Mrs. Wilmer Hamilton and Miss Joan Hamilton, presented an exhibit "Trims with Imagination".

Kathy Walsh, Anna Baas, Catharina Baas, Mary Boland, Wilma Bakker, Karen Butler, Judy Griffith, Nancy Mulders, Carole Paquette, Pamela Smit and Mary Ann Walsh of North Russell No. 2, under the leadership of Mrs. W. E. Burton and Miss Kathy Walsh, presented a skit by all members entitled "Sleep and Lounge in Comfort".

Highlight of the afternoon was the presentation of "Advanced Honours" to Mrs. Shirley Vedder for the completion of 18 projects. She received a certificate of honour and a sterling silver server. This is the third daughter of Mrs. Wilmer Hamilton to have received such an honour. County honours were presented to Marlene Shirley for the completion of six projects. She received a certificate of honour and a sterling silver pin. Each girl receives a sterling silver teaspoon for having completed each project. The Fall project will be "Let's Bake Bread".
