WHAT YOU CAN'T GET IN RUSSELL STORES

My city friends tell me that living in Russell has certain shopping drawbacks. They say you just can't get certain things here. I'm not sure I can agree.

Sure, there are lots of things we don't have in our local stores - no Muzak to put me in the mood, no electronic computer-type cash registers and no barrage of advertising to rid me of my money.

We don't have thousands of clerks, security guards and accountants. We don't have million dollar malls. That means overhead and you know what overhead does to price.

You don't get bamboozled with slick displays, you don't get pounced by some glad-
