E D I T O R I A L

I nearly fell off my chair the other night when I heard that British Columbia grocery packers are asking for over $16,000.00 per year. Now don't get me wrong - I'm all in favor of happy grocery packers (especially when they're packing my eggs and bread) - but I just had to wonder what comes next.

Consider your own job. Is it easier than packing groceries? No? Then you should be making $16,000.00 per year. Are you? Does your job
