These challenging lines are from Mrs. Ethel Crawford of Sheffield.

If an alien being from outer space somehow lost his way and landed on this Earth of ours early on Christmas Day, I wonder what his thoughts would be as he heard the church bells ring, and listened to the songs of praise that little children sing?

When he saw the merriment, the feasting and the fun, with peace on earth, goodwill to men, till Christmas Day was done, could he be forgiven, as he flew back into space, for thinking that we humans are such a friendly race?

The pity is - at Christmas time we really are sincere; we count the whole world as our friend ... for one day in the year!

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, goodwill toward men.

. . . . .

*Never a Christmas morning,
Never the Old Year ends,
But someone thinks of someone,
Old days, old times, old friends.*
