The caption for last issue's photograph of Warner's store was misplaced. Here it is: The Photograph showed Mr. E. McCaffrey, Mr. M. Warner and village children outside Warner's Store, about 1917. Mr. McCaffrey, dressed as Santa Claus, arrived on the 10 o'clock train from Embrun to give Christmas candies to the youngsters.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor,

The staff of the Russell Review wish to express their sincere thanks the the past editor of this newspaper. Eighteen months age, Norm Bowley was presented with a hazy, but intriguing Recreation Association idea. I'm sure many doubts existed at that moment, but under his leadership our first, white, mimeographed issue seemed to appear out of nowhere! Our switch to cherry paper was perhaps a sign of our growing confidence, but as our confidence grew so did the Review. We never forget those dizzy "stalling meetings" around the Twiname's ping-pong table. How many miles did we figure we'd walked??

On behalf of all Review readers we thank you, Norm, for your strong leadership, and tireless effort. And best of luck in your studies.

Sincerely,
Joyce O'Reilly, Esther Butler,
Suzanne Schroeter, Kate Pelot
and Leila Twiname.

We welcome your letters
