St. Joseph Separate School News

On Friday, Oct. 29th, St-Joseph Separate School invited the parents to attend a Hallowe'en masquerade. They were asked to judge the pupils' colourful costumes represented throughout the different levels. Moreover, some parents attended a previous judging of masks and hats made by our pupils. Prizes were awarded both for the creativity in masks and costumes. To end this happy circumstance (reunion), the grade 7 and 8 pupils with the help of their teacher presented a rather exciting and most suspense-filled short sketch on the "Sounds of Hallowe'en." The presence of the parents is always deeply appreciated by the children and the school staff.
