 inter-library loan system which gives good, and generally quick, service.

We would greatly appreciate the help of volunteers to mend

Spare Time!! What Spare Time?

Got the feeling that you have too many irons in the fire? Your days aren't long enough? Look first to where your spare time goes.

According to the experts you are a listener or spectator for over 50 hours a week, averaging out to a total of 2,700 hours a year.
 Television and radio together account for gobbling up over 80 percent of that time, with television grabbing the lion's share.

Reading the newspaper takes 215 hours of your time, and books and periodicals about 175 hours per year.

In the same period, you will attend concerts, plays or operas for 9 hours, and you'll sit in a movie theatre for 10 hours.

To make more of that spare time productive, your best bet is to listen to tapes and records or the radio while you are doing the chores and following the hobbies that occupied our spare time before this wonderful electronic age!
