

Lions Club honours four Charter Members

In 1947, a group of devoted citizens saw fit to organize a Lions Club in Russell. These Charter Members instigated and installed a spirit of commitment to our community which has been rewarded for the past thirty years. These men banded together to serve considerably and unselfishly. Thirty years later we are fortunate to have yet four of these Lions still in service. In recognition of their devotion, the Lions of Russell have awarded Lion Elwood Cochrane, Lion Frank Kinnaird, Lion George McCaffrey and Lion Russell Phair with a Life Membership to the Russell Lions Club.
