The 1977 Russell Fair attracted a record crowd of over 5,000 paid attendants

In the Domestic Science there were 175 entries with Mrs. Keith Dugdale winning the prize for the most points in baking and Mrs. Ronald Hubbard the most points by a new exhibitor.

There were 82 entries in the Roots, Vegetable and Fruit Section, with Mrs. Clelland Hamilton taking the most prizes. In the sewing and craft section there were 179 entries with Mrs. Norman Dugdale winning the Simpsons Special with 17 firsts, ten seconds and 8 thirds. Mrs. Graham Wells was second highest. The judge remarked that the quality of the sewing was exceptionally good.

There were 16 4-H club displays from Russell County. Winners in the Junior Department were Todd Kolestik, Mathew Ekdahl, Billie Jo Bogden, Kathy Bailon, Rosemary Cram, Linda Paquette, Carole St. Denis, Tracie McVey, Sheryl Ludham, Barry McVey, Billy Nyenkamp, Patricia Nyenkamp, Frances Perras, Karen Bekkers, Lynn Malboeuf, Debbie Pratt, Sancha Corneau, Gillian Todd, Darlene Eadie, Brisbin, Deborah Prescott, Gisele Provost. Kerri Middlemiss won the Fire Prevention Poster Contest sponsored by the Grenville Patron Mutual Fire Ins. Co.

In the Flower section there were 194 entries with Mrs. Graham Wells of Williamsburg winning the most points and Mrs. Russell Latour a very close second.

The King Show midway added a great deal to the fair and were very pleased with the attendance for the four day fair.

HEAVY HORSE SHOW

Most points in the Heavy Horse Show went to George Hope of Glen Robertson, Ont. The Live Beef Draw was won by R. H. Nuth of Stittsville.
