

Anniversary Greeting

- 1 While fields are decked with beauty,
And trees and flowers bloom.
Our hearts laugh out in gladness,
Forgetting winter's gloom,
To all a loving welcome
We sing a cheerful lay,
Who join in celebrating
Our anniversary day.

Cho.—We come to meet you with merry
merry lay!

We come to greet you this anniversary day

- 2 To God who in his kindness
Has watched us through the year.
We render grateful homage;
O! may He meet us here.
Grant that our lives from childhood,
Until their latest days,
Be given to his service,
That we may walk His ways.

- 3 Then let each heart be happy
And cheerful be the lay;
God's blessing richly dowers
Our anniversary day;
And may our school united,
On earth a golden chain,
Without one link severed
Be found in heaven again.

Anniversary Hymn

Awake! Awake! awake! etc.
We come again with right good cheer,
To greet our friends and kindred here;
With joyousness our voices raise
In a triumphant song of praise.
With joyousness our voices raise
In a triumphant song of praise.

Awake! awake! awake! etc.
Another year its tale hath told
Of joy and sorrow, as of old,
As borne on time's resistless wing
We'll praise the Lord our heavenly King.
As borne on time's resistless wing, etc.

Awake! awake! awake! etc.
Our days are passing as a dream,
So sweetly gliding down life's stream;
No darksome clouds o'er cast our sky;
For joy now beams in ev'ry eye.
No darksome clouds o'er cast our sky, etc.
Awake! awake! awake! etc.

Since I have been Redeemed.

- 1 I have a song I love to sing,
Since I have been redeemed,
Of my Redeemer, Saviour, King,
Since I have been redeemed.

Cho.—Since I have been redeemed,
Since I have been redeemed,
I will glory in his name
Since I have been redeemed
I will glory in my Saviour's name.

- 2 I have a Christ that satisfies,
Since I have been redeemed,
To do his will my highest prize,
Since I have been redeemed.—Cho.

- 3 I have a Witness, bright and clear,
Since I have been redeemed,
Dispelling every doubt and fear,
Since I have been redeemed.—Cho.

- 4 I have a joy I can't express,
Since I have been redeemed,
All through his blood and righteousness
Since I have been redeemed.—Cho.

- 5 I have a home prepared for me,
Since I have been redeemed,
Where I shall dwell eternally
Since I have been redeemed.

Fair Eden Land.

- 1 How often I think of Thy glories,
Sweet Eden-land, home of the blest!
Where cometh no night, nor sin with its blight,
O precious, O sweet lasting rest!

Cho—O glorious Edenland, gleaming
With beauties that ever are new!
One day I may stand upon her fair
strand,
And then my dear treasures I'll view

- 2 I think of the loved ones their waiting,
Yes! watching and waiting for me!
I'll greet them at last, when earth-life is past.
And evermore happy shall be!—Cho.

- 3 O builder and maker of mansions,
Awaiting me on that bright shore!
Be near to my side, my wayward steps
guide,
Till life and its toils are all o'er.—Cho

Thanksgiving

- 1 Thanks be to God! to whom earth owes
Sunshine and breeze;
Thanks for the hill and vale's repose,
Streamlet and seas;
The snowdrop and summer's the rose,
And busy humming bees.

Cho.—Thanks, thanks, thanks be to God!
Thanks, thanks, thanks be to God!
Thanks be to God the Father,
Son, and Holy Ghost.

- 2 Thanks, for His own thrice-blessed word
And Sabbath rest;
Thanks for the hope of glory stored
In mansions blest;
And for the Spirit's comfort poured
Into the troubled breast.

- 3 Thanks, more than thanks, to Him ascend
Who died to win
Our life, and every trophy rend
From death and sin;
Till when the things of earth shall end,
The thanks of heaven begin.
