The Lord's Prayer

Introduction—

DEARLY BELOVED—The Scriptures teach us that God is well pleased with those who build temples to His name. We have heard how he filled the Temples of Solomon with His glory, and how in the second temple He manifested himself still more gloriously. Let us not doubt that He will approve our purpose of dedicating this house for the performance of the several offices of religious worship; and let us now devoutly join in praise to Almighty God that this godly undertaking hath been so far completed; and in prayer for His further blessing upon all who have been engaged therein, and upon all who shall hereafter worship in this place.

| 1 O God of Bethel, by whose handThy people still are fed;Who through this weary pilgrimageHast all our fathers led. 2 Our vows, our prayers, we now presentBefore thy throne of grace;God of our fathers, be the GodOf their succeeding race. | 3 Through each perplexing path of lifeOur wandering footsteps guide,Give us each day our daily bread,And raiment fit provide. 4 O spread thy covering wings around,Till all our wanderings cease,And at our Father's loved abodeOur souls arrive in peace! 5 Such blessings from thy gracious handOur humble prayers implore:And thou shalt be our chosen God,And portion evermore.—Philip Doddridge. |
