

. Then the sails fill and are sheeted home, port tack hauled forward and secured. Decks are awash as the ship puts her lee rail under and forges ahead, throwing sheets of spray from her lee bow. This is windjamming at its most exciting!