This speech was broadcast over Radio Station C.F.R.B. this afternoon, on the popular Red, White and Blue program.

"Worthy of mention on this program I think is the effort of the Kinsmen Club of St. Catherines to do a real piece of war work in not only supporting and endorsing the Sea Cadet Corps of St. Catherines ---- 'H.M.S. Renown', but in building for that Corps a wonderful new headquarters in that Garden City.

"I say war work because helping any of the Sea Cadet Corps of the Navy League is war work. For many thousands of Sea Cadets, three quarter trained as able seamen under the auspices of the Navy League of Canada at a saving to the Government of Canada of roughly two thousand dollars per head, which would be the amount involved in providing the first two years training in the Navy itself if they entered it as raw material, have joined the R.C.N., the Merchant Service, the Army and the Air Force, and more are joining daily.

"To get back to my story.

"Five months ago the land underneath the Burgoyne Bridge on St. Paul St., St. Catherines, was a wilderness.

"To-day there stands on the now finely landscaped piece of land a fine land-ship, 120 feet over-all in length, in the form of a British
