

Petty Officer, 18, Cadet Of Year At RCSCC Renown

Petty Officer Anthony Berezowski, 18, of 27 Ravine St. was honored as Cadet of the year at RCSCC Renown last night.

The Grade 11 Merritton High School student was presented with the Macbeth Trophy for his outstanding work in all aspects of sea cadet work by the donor, Robert Ian Macbeth.

In addition to receiving the top award, PO2 Berezowski also received the divisional award for proficiency on behalf of his section.

Other sea cadet award winners were: Certificates of proficiency, PO1 Douglas Allan, 18, of 5 Marquis St., and PO1 Charles Bartlett, 18, of 34 Brighton St.

Renown wardroom trophy for first year proficiency: AC Larry Cotnam, 14, of 19 Princess St.; Art Ellis memorial trophy for swimming: LC Gerard McIntyre, 15, of 6 Goldsmith Ave.

Stan Tufford trophy for highest marks: PO2 John Dalziel, 17, of 21 Hanson Dr.; Provincial Tire trophy for best rifle shot: PO2 Daniel Chmielewski, 17, of 114 Page St.

Gyro Club award for second year proficiency: LC John Vanlaar, 16, of 5 Westdale Dr.; Royal Canadian Legion trophy for best senior cadet: PO1 Douglas Allan.

Renown attendance trophy and medals for perfect attendance: PO2 Brian DeRusha, 17, of 79 Pleasant Ave. (trophy), LC Charles Wheeler, 15, of 12 Blain Pl., LC John Vanlaar, LC Jack Cotnam, 16, and his brother Larry of 18 Princess St.

Two other medal winners, John Hunt, 18, of 17 St. Patrick St., and LC Charles Gacula, 17, of 60 Geneva St., are on a Far East cruise and were unable to attend the event.

The cadet of the year in the Navy League Cadet Corps is AC John Stetlinski, 14, of 8 Antwerp St., who received the Award of Merit. The Florence Crowley award for attendance went to LC Vito Ruscio, 14, of 1 Antwerp St., and the proficiency award was given to LC Joseph Kozina, 14, of 9 Winnifred Ave.

Lt.-Cmdr. Ratcliffe checks the smartness of Navy League cadets during his visit of inspection to RCSCC Renown last night.

Apr 29, 1965

ST. CATHARINE'S, ONTARIO,

Construction of shear legs for lifting heavy weights is watched by Lt.-Cmdr. Ratcliffe, who offered cadets a few suggestions after their demonstration.