are nearly the same over here as at Salisbury plains except it is much colder.

It rains incessantly as usual but we are so accustomed to wet & wind that we don't consider it bad any more.

You were enquiring in your last letter if there was anything I would like you to send me from Canada. There are quite a few different articles I would like to have but it is too far to send them you might make up a package parcel post - size of tobacco & matches & send it to me.

I cannot give
