

Here & There

While you were watching the ball games this summer at the Milford Ball Diamond, did you notice how well the diamond was maintained? Did you notice the newly levelled area where the concrete slab used to be, that is now a grassed area. Looked good didn't it? Many thanks Recreation, for giving us a playing field we can be proud of and doing this on our behalf.

Remember last year when the library was closed for a time while the new one was built? People took arm loads of books home to store and read until the library was reopened. Well the new library is open now folks, and if some of those books are still on your shelves, they would like them back. No fines will be charged until the first of September, on overdue books, so get them in there. And by the way, if you have some current titles looking for a home, why don't you take them along too.

The provisional lists are out for the Milford Fair. Have a look at them, and see if they include all the categories that should be there. The lists are in the post office, the library and Hicks' General Store, so have a look.

By the way, if you are interested in helping with the Milford Fair, come out the Fair Board Meeting, August 17th at 7:30 p.m. in the hall at Mount Tabor Playhouse.

Interested in being a vendor at Milford Fair, call Peigi Brown at 476-1389. There is space available.

Bob Rorabeck was impressed with the speed and efficiency of the South Marysburgh Volunteer Fire Department the other day when his kitchen caught fire. He was also thankful for the neighbour who rushed over with a chemical extinguisher and got the fire under control until the fire department arrived.
