

CRYPTICKLE

ACROSS

- 1 A caged lout improperly listed (10)
- 6 Borders of crownless shrubs (5)
- 9 Gown is one I grip in confusion (8)
- 10 Nets in, in same directions reversed (6)

DOWN

- 11 Pair allow arm band (8)
 - 12 Visage holds right to nothing back in contest (8)
 - 14 Wooed about the store, one and all put on trial (5-10)
 - 17 Cubic centimetre nothing you find in high spasm (8)
 - 19 ET leaves confused and rises (8)
 - 21 A coquette relaxed (2,4)
 - 22 Bungled rape, kind for abductor (8)
 - 23 Raw fish in schools U.S. history (5)
 - 24 Blendable fuel odor holds engine starter (10)
-
- 1 State each antic (5)
 - 2 Start of the hag jerk (6)
 - 3 Floor covering the mule-lion mix (8)
 - 4 One road post edge in gridiron is item for advantage (5,3,3,4)
 - 5 Crazy Diane met insanity (8)
 - 7 Friend supports tailless spirit in an amiable manner (8)
 - 8 Mailers hold U.S. leader of postmen by straps (10)
 - 11 Drops hold each headstart for footholds (10)
 - 13 However hers holds the key to choppers (8)
 - 15 Like a Chinese sect, call it a stoic upset (8)
 - 16 Big fires suggest rejections (8)
 - 18 Taste sufficient to hold up the south (6)
 - 20 Bird of headless remorse (5)

(Solution on page 12)

Congratulations!

The 1996 Athol Girls Intermediate Girls Softball Team included several players from South Marysburgh as there were too few participants to form two teams. Due to increasing interest we hope to see that change next year.

With the excellent coaching of Brenda Kerr and Patty Guernsey, and the talent and effort of the team, they had a great season!