Notes*

Milford Community Friendship Circle ladies held their April meeting in South Marysburgh Township hall. President Jean Burrows welcomed us with her gem "

Few things are more satisfying than seeing your 'children have teenagers of their own." The roll call was answered by eighteen members giving their self-composed "Ode to Spring". The thought for the day "A drop in time in the ocean" was given by Joanna Brearley.

Minutes of the March meeting were read by June Miller. Mary Parsons moved the adoption of the minutes as read. Collection, membership dues and treats for happiness for the Christian Children's Fund were received.

Shirley McCaw gave the card report of the sympathy and birthday cards sent.

Correspondence of thank you note for the donation to the prince Edward Memorial Hospital in memory of Wilbur Brooks. A letter of thanks was read from "Windfall" a Toronto home for the quilts that had been donated to them. Treasurer Wilma Creasy gave the treasurer's report. It was moved by Alice Miller and seconded by June Miller that all outstanding bills be paid.

During the business session we were reminded of the Craft show for July 31st and arrangements were made as to what section of the Township road we would pick-up for the trash bash on April 26th.

Jean Burrows thanked the quilters for their faithfulness to the task of providing quilts of which four quilts were given to the Duval family in Picton after their fire.

It was moved by Mary Creasy and seconded by Isabel Day that $100.00 be given to help pay for a child to go to Qin-Mo-Lac camp. It was moved by Muriel Rorabeck and seconded by Margaret Ceh that a $50.00 donation be given to our local 4H club. Our President presented a gift of a family album to Alice Miller for their 40th Wedding Anniversary.

Guest speaker was Randy Claxton of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. He enlisted in 1956 and attended the Regina Academy and was posted to Prince George, British Columbia. He became Superintendent in charge of operations in Toronto. He was Director General in Pacific Region of Canadian Security Intelligence Service. Retiring and returning to live in Cherry Valley. He told of his duties in several postings and explained the uniform of RCMP officers. He was thanked by Margaret Ceh and presented with a gift of a hamper of apples.
