Tell Your Own Story

A series of fun and informative workshops where we will explore our own families and community through the power of the story. Starting with the oral traditions, through interview research and desk top publishing, the participants will create a story book of their own. Participants ages 7 to 13 are welcome whether they can attend all workshops or only a few. Don't miss your chance to place your own story in the library collection. Please register.

Please welcome Laura Banfield and Meagan Puddy, two local area students who will be joining the library system for the summer to work on special programmes and help in all the library branches.

Pretty in Pink - We hope everyone has noticed the gorgeous flower boxes in front of the library, compliments of Diane Walker. They really brighten up the doorway, don't they?

Keep your finger on the political pulse of the County (the official version, anyway) by reading Council and Committee minutes, available at the library. Just ask at the desk.

Congratulations to former volunteer Ella Wiens who gave up working for free at the Ann Farwell Library and accepted a part-time, paid job at Picton Library.
