"The views, both from monuments and on the street, are unlike anything I've seen before. I also enjoyed seeing famous places. I regret not seeing Spiderman as that was my primary mission."

-Chris Sunnucks

"I liked when we got to be in the movie and going to the play."

-Sydnee Matthews

"My great big thrills were being in a movie, singing in the Statue of Liberty, watching the show, feeding pigeons on my hand but most of all traveling with friends and making new friends."

-Jenica Hammett

"I loved being invited into the Russian Tea Room, seeing Jenica's face light up and dreaming of going back there someday to actually have tea."

-Reeva Hammett

"There were so many great moments but I think the Empire State Building was very exciting because it was always special to me. The Hard Rock Cafe with all the famous guitars was definitely awesome."

-Wes Hicks

"The number of activities we were able to squeeze in the 3 days."

-Al Hazell

midtown eatery Hard Rock Cafe tickets to Radio City Music Hall's Christmas Spectacular plus a one hour tour of the historic hall, tickets to the Statue of Liberty and Ellis Island and the services of Franklin Coach Lines whose driver Ted Algar bussed the group through Times Square, lower Manhattan and to the Empire State Building.

The trip started at 6 a.m. Dec 5 at the Prince Edward Community Centre and arrived back there at 11 p.m. Dec 7th. On the way home from New York City the travelers were asked to write down the highlights of the trip. Herewith are some of their comments:

"The whole experience was fantastic, being with people I really enjoy, who burst into song at the drop of a hat - when's the next trip?"

-Bernadette Hill

"Ted, the bus driver, stopping the bus in the middle of Times Square and holding up traffic - the doorman of the Milford Plaza blowing his whistle at us . . . and being "renegade carollers" in the World Trade Center"

-Lori Farrington

"I enjoyed Radio City Music Hall the most. The show was fantastic and the building an unforgettable sight to behold"

-Lois Beaumont

"The part I liked the most was the Statue of Liberty. It seemed that we climbed forever on really scary stairs but when I could see light coming through the windows in the crown, it was incredible."

-Gillian Walls
