ANN FARWELL LIBRARY GOES LIVE

On Saturday November 18 @ 2 p.m. please join us for our official launch of the automated circulation system. We will be checking out your books on the system, so please have your cards ready. In celebration of this milestone in library service in the Town of Milford, we will have local dignitaries and press present. Mark your calendar and join in the festivities. Hope to see everyone out to support us. Refreshments will be served. See our official invitation on page 2.
