it look wonderful lit up all night, especially over Christmas and New Years.

Joel Walker for installing the new electrical line and for arranging for the South Marysburgh Rec Committee colouring contest and light competition to be announced during the evening and for the beautiful ornaments donated for the tree.

St Philips Church and Auxiliary, who agreed to cooperate by holding their annual carol sing and wagon rides the same night as the tree lighting, and provided the refreshments.

Bob Clapp of Ironwood Industries and Lane Studios donated lights and tree top star.

Friends of the Ann Farwell Library who instigated the idea of the tree at a summer get together in 1999 and encouraged and assisted me in making it happen.

THANKS TO EVERYONE - for helping and attending. Hope we can pull together to do it again in 2001.
