had a solo show at the Belleville Library & Art Gallery and had work accepted in the Art in the County juried exhibitions. He has been guest artist at Gallery 121 and is currently a member. He participated in the PEC Art Gallery and Studio Tour in 1999 and 2000. His work is also displayed at the Ottawa Art Gallery, the Picton Art Gallery and Picturesque Gallery in Napanee and is included in private collections across Canada.

Wayne McNulty lives in Wellington, Ontario and uses his camera to explore light, shadow, patterns and textures. He has traveled extensively within and outside Canada in search of intriguing images. His work has been included in juried exhibitions in Belleville and Picton and his images are included in private collections in Canada and the United States. He received "honourable mentions" for photographs included in Art In The County 1999 and 2000 and in a competition sponsored by The Toronto Star. In 2000, his work was exhibited at the Milford Coffee Gallery and as a guest artist in the Prince Edward County Studio and Gallery Tour 2000.

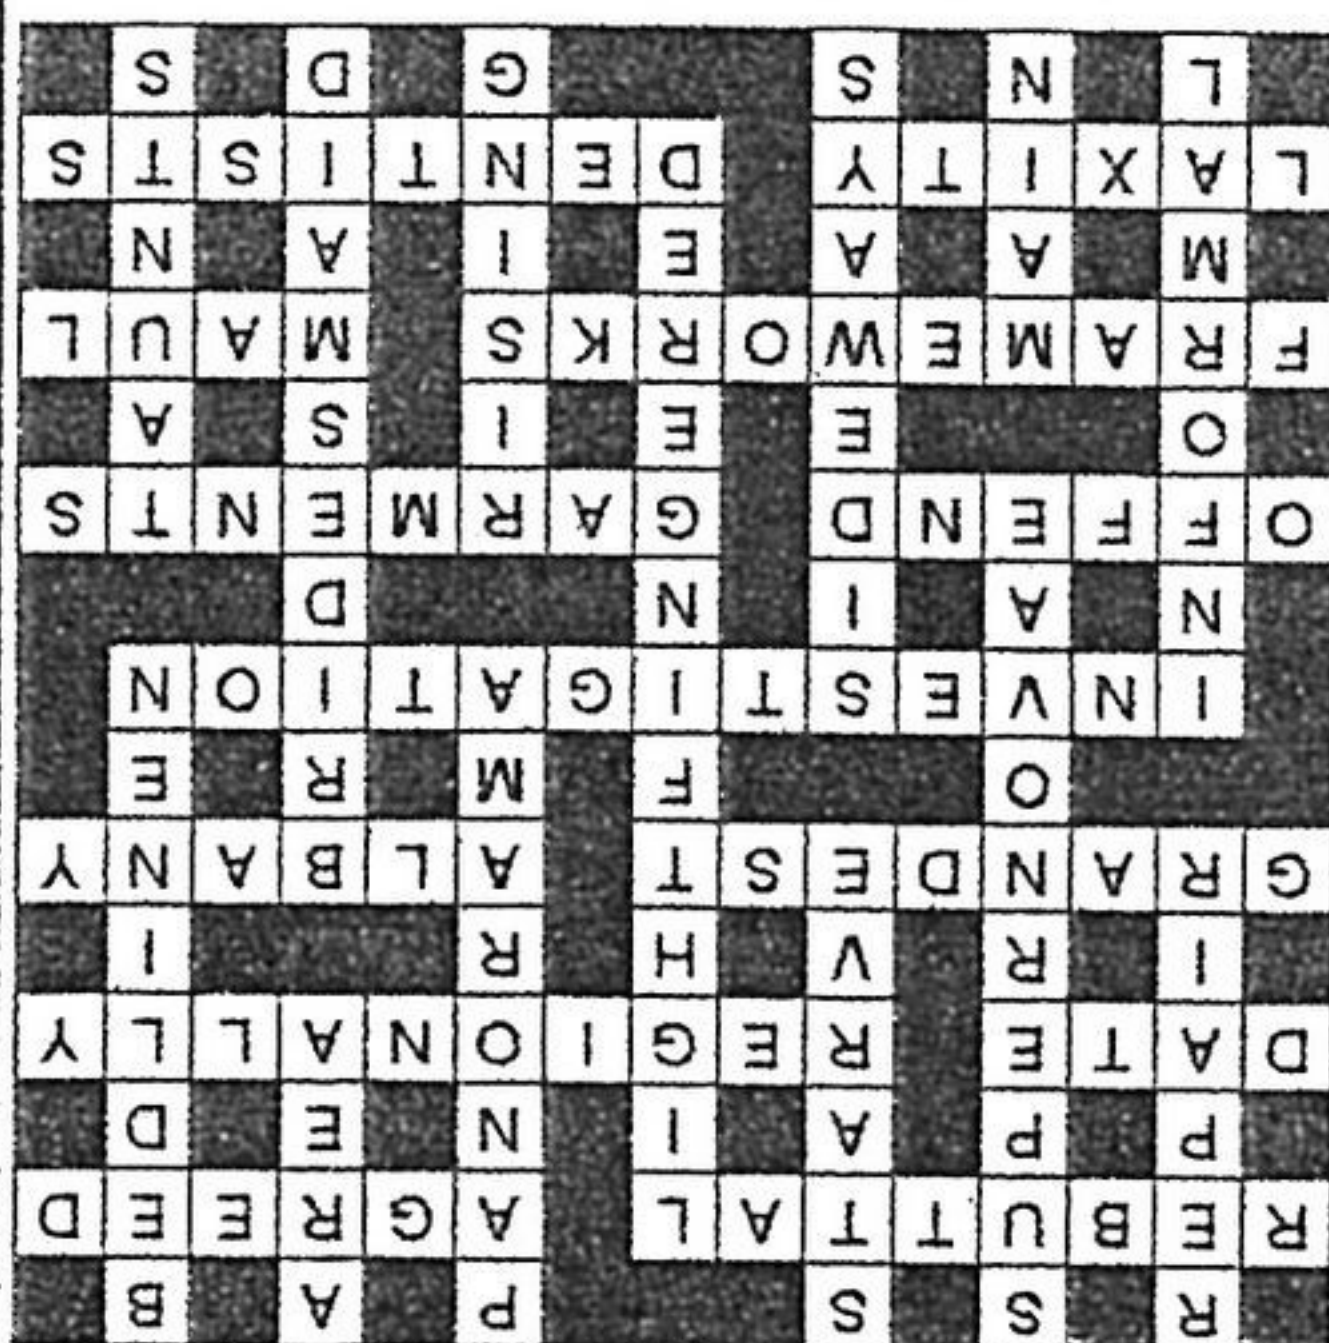

Wayne's images have been featured in the County Weekly News and on the cover of County Magazine. His photographs are on display at the Sidestreet Gallery in Wellington and at the Picton Art Gallery; his greeting cards are sold at several locations in Prince Edward County.

Both Don and Wayne have photographs featured in the Taste The County Calendar 2000.

Art in the Community is a program of the Prince Edward County Arts Council. For information, please contact Peta Hall at (613) 393-1696.
