A Toronto research team has found a protein named p110gamma, that raises the possibility of new, noninvasive treatment for colon cancer. It is the second leading cause of cancer deaths in Canada. About 17,000 Canadians will have colorectal cancer this year and about 6,500 will die from it.

"How many fish did you say you caught last weekend?", a local wife asked her husband as she went through their mail.

"I brought home six beauties. Why?"

"Just as I thought," she replied. "The fish market made a mistake and is billing us for eight."

Before a burglary trial, the judge explained to the local defendant, "You can let me try your case, or you can choose to have a jury of your peers."

The man looked puzzled. "What are peers?", he asked.

"They're people just like you - your equals/"

"Forget it," retorted the defendant. "I don't want to be tried by a bunch of thieves."
