The ladies met at Milford Town Hall on Thursday, May 10th, at 1:30 p.m.

President Gillian Parker's opening comment was as follows - I woke up this morning in a body, breathing. The billions of people who are asleep are breathing. The billions of people who are awake are breathing. How is it possible for me to feel alone?

Freda Spice's Thought For The Day was "I know Something Good About You."

Freda Spice moved and Jean Burrows seconded that we donate $125.00 to Camp Quin-Mo-Lac. Carried.

The Roll Call was good ideas to use materials that don't cost much for making craft items.

Card report was presented and all bills paid.

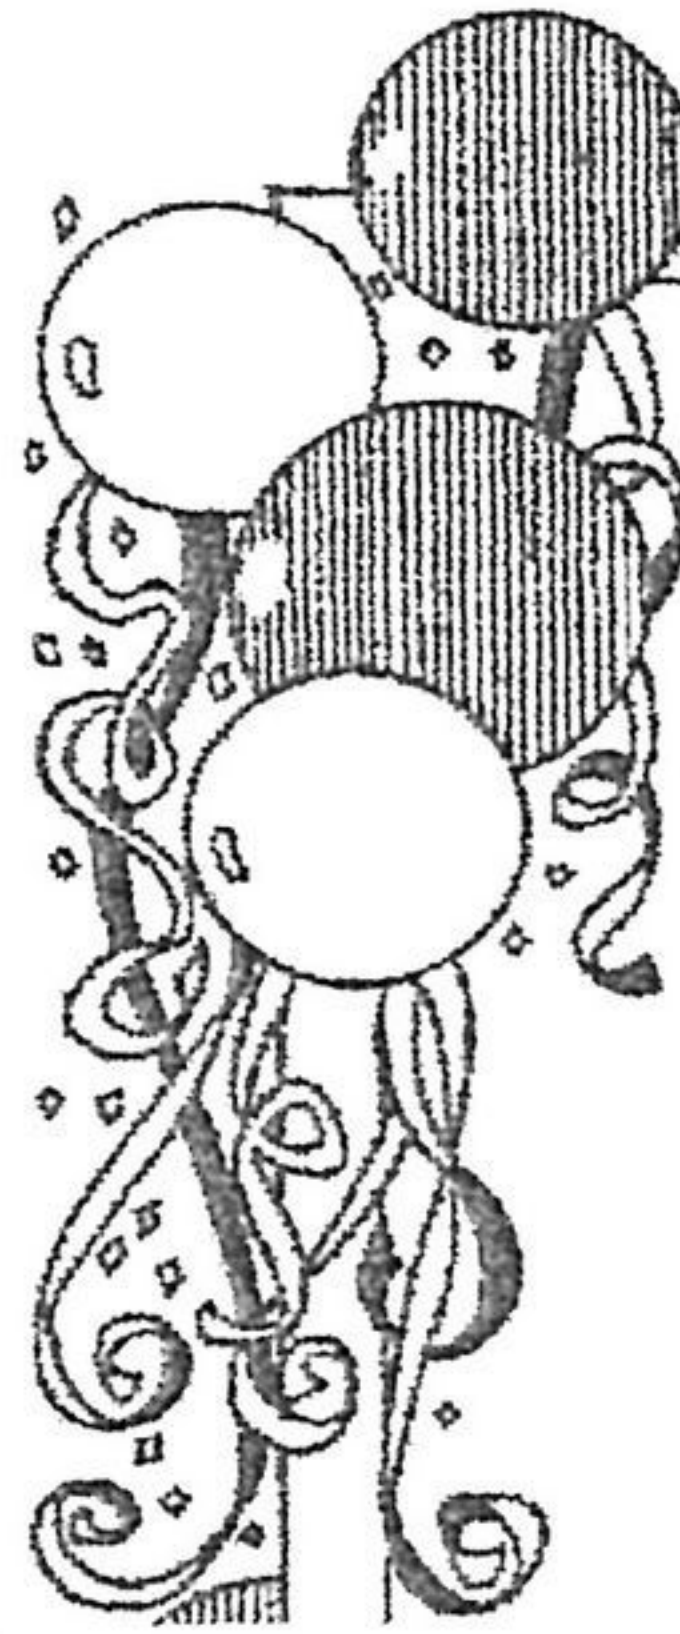

Plans were made for having our yard sale at Milford Town Hall on Saturday, June 2nd, 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. It sounds as if there should be articles to please everyone plus new quilts made by our members.

We were privileged to have a presentation concerning Heart and Stroke by Linda Veenstra and Sally Cowan. It was very interesting and informative.

Wilma Creasy and Alice Miller brought the afternoon to a pleasant closing with lunch and they were thanked by Mary Creasy.
