Our July 12th Meeting was in the form of a delicious pot luck lunch in the pergola at the home of our president, Gillian Parker. A short business meeting was conducted in the outside arbor.

Marg Ceh had 2 short Thoughts for the Day - "Your Sins will find you out" and "God, what is a million years to you?"

Secretary Marg Ceh's minutes for the June meeting were accepted as read - moved by Freda Spice and seconded by Mary Creasy.

Our roll call was a recipe exchange which Freda volunteered to run copies off for the members.

Our finances were readily disposed of with a motion made by Freda Spice and seconded by Marg Ceh to give our usual donation of $100.00 to the Milford Fair. Carried. The plans for our float for Milford Fair Parade were discussed and finalized. We decided to sell tickets on our quilt from 12:00 noon to 4:00 p.m.

Card Secretary Freda Spice reported on cards sent and a thank you card was received from Don Purcell.

The volunteers from Ann Farwell Library kindly allowed the Friendship Circle to sell tickets on our quilt at their book sale on Saturday, July 14th. Gillian Parker and Alice Miller were on duty from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. and Wilma Creasy and Marg Purcell from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

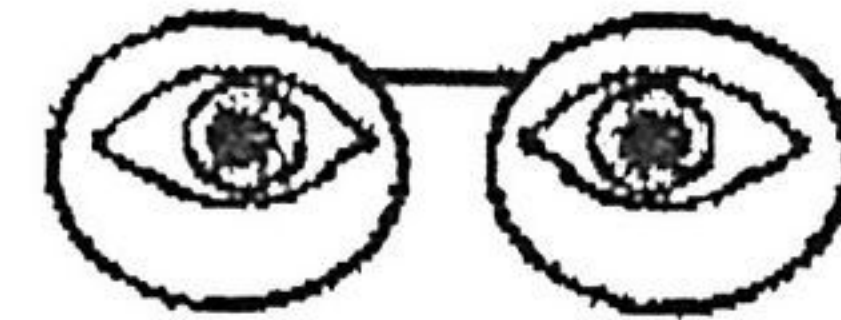

The ladies will be selling quilt tickets at the Arts and Craft sale in Picton on August 2nd

Everyone was reminded to support the Terry Fox Run from South Marysburgh School in September.

The closing thought for our meeting was - When we try to pick out anything by itself, we find it hitched to everything else in the universe.

An enjoyable social time was enjoyed before everyone headed for home.
