

LIBRARY NOTES

Sure hope residents of South Marysburgh are keeping cool this hot, hot summer. The Library has been a busy place lately, so obviously you are relaxing and reading. New books are arriving weekly. A few titles to note are:

Kathy Reichs - Fatal Voyage
James Patterson - 1st to die
Robert Ludlum - Cassandra compact
Sue Grafton - "P" is for Peril
Danielle Steel - Lone Eagle

If you haven't read them - call us and we put them on HOLD for you. Call 476-4130

We wish to thank the Marysburgh Mummies for their kind and generous donation to the Friends of the Ann Farwell Library. We plan to purchase a selection of poetry books with this donation. The "Friends of the Ann Farwell Library" also made a very generous donation towards books for the collection. We thank the "Friends" for their continued support and assistance.

Our Annual Giant Used Book Sale was a success. The selection was great. If you missed it, the Friends will have a book table at Milford Fair On Sept. 15. They will also have a perennial plant table and an "Ask the Expert"

And we haven't forgotten our younger generation - Many many new children's books have been purchased. Lots of great new series are available for their reading pleasure. Are your children getting bored? If so, come on over to the Library on Thursdays at 1:30 p.m. See page 20 for our August programmes. Have you tried LIBRARY BINGO? - It's loads of fun and you might even win a prize. Kids 6 and up are invited to make "Snow Globes" on Aug. 9 - Please pre register at the library or give a call.

Lynette Pettit will lead the 2nd Annual Milford Teddy Bear's Picnic on Aug. 16. Bring your favourite teddy for lots of fun, stories, games and crafts. Judy Cole presents her MARVELOUS MILFORD MARIONETTES on Aug. 30. Bring the whole family for this wonderful show. We thank Lynette and Judy for their generosity and their time to provide quality children's programmes in Milford.

That's it for now. Till next time, keep cool and keep reading.
