

MARINER'S MUSEUM PRESENTS

Tall tales and other true stories from the Great Lakes

Emily Fennell, Suzanne Pasternak, Janet Kellough and David Archibald are the cast of the delightful musical Tall Tales and Other True Stories From The Great Lakes which will be performed Wednesday, August 8 at 7:00 p.m. on the lawn of the Mariner's Museum at South Bay.

"We have so much fun doing this show and it will be incredible to perform it on the shores of South Bay," says Suzanne Pasternak. "David has done years of primary research on Lake Huron and has an amazing body of music and stories from this research. Both Janet and I have done the same with Lake Ontario lore and when you add the rich vocals from Emily Fennell, you have a spectacular show. David is almost a comedian, he is so funny and engaging. But his songwriting is beautiful and he is a virtuosic guitarist."

Profits from this one night only performance will go to the Mariner's Museum. If it rains, the show will be held at the Fair Barn in Milford. Tickets are $10.00 and $5.00 for kids. For more information or tickets call Suzanne Pasternak at 476-9647.
