Dear Fellow Citizens,

So this is a nice fall, yes? I keep getting second chances at blocking crawl space holes and painting outside windows and putting away the lawn chairs and it's a good thing. My first chances I use to dally away fine sunny days it seems! Last week I strolled along the Sandbanks beach and watched the fighter planes skirt back and forth out from the shore. As a kid in Hillier, I daily had an air show during the summer as the Golden Hawks troupe flew over our farm practicing their maneuvers. It was fascinating and exciting. The planes at the Sandbanks left me feeling differently - sad, intruded upon. Another day a group of municipal councillors and staff traveled to Warsaw, outside Buffalo, to view the windmill operation there. The customs station en route had drastically changed since I was down in early September with "reinforcements" of cameras and barriers spread about. It reminded me of my border crossings in Egypt and Russia. My country feels different.

The Black River Cheese Factory fire has resulted in long and heavy days for the directors and staff I sense as they gather information to present to the shareholders and try to keep their market active with product. I don't envy the decision facing shareholders. I had the opportunity to represent the Mummies at the "Awards for Rural Excellence" sponsored by the Ontario Foundation for Rural Living last week north of Toronto. There was an award for "Excellence in Formal Co-operative Models". If the decision is to rebuild, I intend to make sure Black River Cheese Factory gets a nomination. After one hundred years, its successes, its tragedy and its triumph, it will deserve to be on the podium!

On behalf of the community I want to recognize three of our firefighters who received length-of-service awards at the Firefighters' Assn. Banquet on October 20. Paul Minaker, Glendon Walker and Brent Walker have collectively over 50 years of service among them. The Cheese Factory fire was serviced by 40 volunteer firefighters. But it was our township folks who were there at
