A Landmark Lost

O.K., So what we want to know is how anyone is going to find us now? Coming from the smoke (TO), a visitor is lost the moment they make that turn off the 401 onto Wooler Road. It becomes even more complicated if they have been held up by the swing bridge over the Murray Canal. Then you try to describe to them how to join the Loyalist Parkway #33 and then leave it again at #1 Scohaire Road in Consecon. Then cause total confusion by telling them to stay on the same road for 25 minutes till they reach the #33 AGAIN.

Still, they make it into Picton. They even make it past the big M of McDonalds, but the trickiest part is still to come. We lose so many visitors at the end of Main Street Picton as they go straight on and finish up back on the 401 at Deseronto...but let's hope they made the right turn on - wait for it #33 headed for - wait for it... a FERRY??? The Glenora Ferry. They even make the right turn on #8 headed for Waupoos and Milford leaving town again... a scary thought for townies looking for what... A distant place called "Pastor's Rest." It was supposed to be called Pastor's Green (a play on words) but the router came up with an "R" instead of a "G" and the rest... forgive the pun is history.

Some of our intrepid visitors manage to negotiate the right branch of a Y junction onto #17 heading... YES, at last... heading for Black River Cheese Factory (and Milford) though we lose some who continue on the main road to Waupoos no doubt attracted by the signs for "Wine Tasting." A boozy lot these Torontonians!

#16 highway is really just a little cut off of #17. Its only claim to fame is a beautiful view out over the distant Lake Ontario AND>>>> it is the way to The Black River Cheese Factory and our beloved home. If our visitors make it this far then we are home free, or at least they are because our home is on the right about ½ km away... that's right "Pastor's Rest." I have to admit that we used to lose a few who could not resist the temptation to continue past our
