

Christmas Cards

How lovely are the sentiments contained in Christmas cards.

As well as dear heart-warming scenes of snowy trees and yards

They never change so very much but who would want it so,

For Christmas seems to just belong to cedar trees and snow.

The greetings on a Christmas card are precious as a gem

Because neighbours and old friends send us their love with them -

Warming our hearts with loving words, making us know that they Are thinking of dear bygone times upon this Christmas day.

A holly wreath, a little church, a lovely lighted door,

Some carol singers in the street, the windows of a store.

All these are part of Christmas time, like cake and mistletoe,

Because a card arrived today and sort of told me so.

A Landmark Lost - Continued from page 6

"mansion" and seek out this place; this home of lacticity and delacticity; home of flavour and country produce; home of the best Extra Extra Old Cheddar; a home known simply as The Black River Cheese Factory.

Sadly all that remains of it is a concrete pad and a couple of smoke blackened milk tanks. We who claim to be locals pray for a phoenix-like rising from the ashes of The NEW Black River Cheese Factory when we can be sure that our visitors from Toronto will be able to find our home once more and we will be able to enjoy our XXO Cheddar.

Written respectfully by an interested neighbour of BRC.

Sincerely,
Pastor Ian Robb.

Community - Continued from page 9

Again, influenced by the memories of those who have lived and served in our community it was decided to provide two black granite stones on which individuals could have engraved the name(s) and date(s) of those they wished to remember (for a fee of course to assist in paying for the project).

This memorial is not restricted to members of St. Philip's but in the spirit of community to all who would like to participate. Valerie and I will have our parents names engraved. They never saw Milford or South Marysburgh but we feel that in some little way it will make them part of this, our community.

Why don't you take a drive to the Church and see what has been done to date. If you want more information give me a call at 476-1633.
