performers in a loose "feel good" format that is perfect for the Mount Tabor stage. Joining Kellough and Pasternak are fiddler extraordinaire Zeke Mazurek and percussionist Steve Fruitman, formerly of The Cajun Ramblers and The Black Flies, who promise to challenge stepdancer Robyn Murphy.

"Robyn is one of the stepdancers who was featured in last summer's performance of "Minerva", Kellough says. "And in keeping with our philosophy of working with some of the younger members of the performing community, we've also booked Alex Hicks, who has performed many times with the Mummies."

Another familiar South Marysburgh musician, Bill Ostrander, as well as singer Jeanette Arsenault will also be on hand.

"Jeanette doesn't normally do a lot of folk or traditional music," Kellough says, "but she has very
