The ladies met in Milford Town Hall on Thursday, February 14th at 1:30 p.m.

President Gillian Prker opened with the thought - Stress is an ignorant state. It believes that everything is an emergency. Nothing is that important. Just lie down.

Mary Creasy's thought for the day was entitled "A Garden In My Heart"

Secretary Marg Ceh read the minutes of the January meeting which were approved.

Roll call was an exchange of homemade valentines.

Marg Crouse reported the cards she sent in Freda Spice's absence. Freda Spice has returned from her trip and will resume this duty. Welcome back, Freda. We're glad to see you again.

Treasurer Wilma Creasy took in the money and paid the bills as usual.

We are going to sell tickets on our quilt at the Quilt Show July 6th and 7th.

Freda Spice showed us pictures from their trip out west and through the States and gave a short, interesting talk on some of the places they visited.

Gillian was the winner of Marge Drury's contest which quizzed us on different categories.

A social time was enjoyed over lunch supplied by Mary Crouse and Jean Burrows and were thanked by Mary Creasy.
