

South Bay U.C.W.

- The United Church Women met at South Bay Church Hall on Wednesday February 13th at 1:30 p.m.
- Brenda Minaker opened with this thought:- Each day is a new opportunity to correct the mistakes of yesterday and to deal with the challenges that face us today. Our purpose, theme hymn and The Lord's Prayer followed.
- Dodie Dance's devotional was based on Luke 12, v. 15 - Life is not based on material things but on the talents of yourself.
- The minutes of the January meeting were read and their adoption moved by Marge Drury. Carried.
- Fifteen members answered roll call with 22 sick calls being made.
- Donna Loney reported sending sympathy and special birthday cards.
- Robert and Pat York have been doing an excellent job of keeping fresh plants on the altar and reported having to buy some.
- Our collection this month will be a donation to the Heart and Stroke fund.
- We changed the date for our fish fry to either July 31st or August 14th. (We contacted Bryan McCormack and he verified August 14th.)
- Clean-up date for the church is set for Tuesday, April 2nd at 9:00 a.m. Bring your lunch.
- Baby sitting dates are set as follows:
 - February 17th - Karen Guernsey,
 - February 24th - Maureen Rudd,
 - March 3rd - Dodie Dance,
 - March 10th - Winona Moran.
- The ladies moved to give money to the choir to purchase music.
- The World's Day of Prayer will be at St. Philip's Anglican Church in Milford on Friday, March 1st, at 2:00 p.m. Volunteers to help with the service are Karen Guernsey, Maureen Rudd and Brenda Minaker.
- Sunrise service on Easter Sunday, March 31st will be held at Little Bluff with a light breakfast being served afterwards the church by U.C.W.
