

LIBRARY NOTES

'TIS THE SEASON TO BE JOLLY!!

Join Pat & Rob at the Ann Farwell Library's Christmas Open House on Thurs. December 19th between 1 & 5 p.m. Share a cup of hot apple cider and home made treats with the staff and fellow library patrons. There will be a children's craft table for the little ones. Hope you will join us for this fun afternoon.

More fun on Tues. December 10 @ 6:45 p.m. (Sleepyhead Storytime) when a guest storyteller will entertain the little ones with stories and songs of the season.

The County of Prince Edward Public Library Report of the Community Survey June 2002, is now available at the library. Please ask the staff if you wish to see it.

COUNTY PROFILES - a series of adult lectures, is being planned by staff and the Friends of the Library. We hope to begin in January 2003. If you have an expertise that would make an interesting informal lecture, please give us a call at 476-4130. Watch for more details in the January issue of the Mirror.

Happy holidays to everyone and best wishes for a prosperous New Year.

MILFORD BARRELS IN BLOOM

Our Part 2 demo was a great success. 16 persons gathered in the Town Hall to watch as we transformed the Town Hall barrel into a work of natural wonder. Many thanks to whoever was brave and strong enough to get the barrel into the hall. And thanks to Bruce & Jim and their helpers for getting it back outside.

Using many kinds of evergreens, dried materials and lots of imagination, we filled the barrel as well as gave other ideas for decorating your home for the holidays.

As you drive the roads of Milford, watch carefully for the barrels lining the town. If you haven't filled your barrel yet, be sure to do so and keep the barrels in bloom program rolling.

We would also like to thank the Milford Fair Board for approving a new category for 2003 - BEST BARREL.

We wish everyone a very happy holiday season and thank you for supporting the program.

- Carolyn Whiteley & Pat Dubyk
