

The South Marysburgh Mirror

Published for and about local people and events

Come Join the Parade!

Everyone is invited to participate in the 2nd Annual Easter Parade on Saturday, April 10th.

We will begin gathering at the Milford Town Hall at 10:30 am and plan to begin the parade at 11:00 am. Wear your most creative bonnet, cap, helmet or hat and bring along the babies in decorated strollers and tots in bunny costumes. Decorated wheelbarrows and other additions to the fun are welcome. The parade will proceed from the Town Hall to Mount Tabor in the Fair Grounds. Transportation will be available for those who wish to attend but may not be able to manage the walk.

Continued on page 8

Peter Cottontail seems quite pleased surrounded by these lovely ladies in their Easter finery at last year's parade.

Trash Bash Challenge

Basher, the Trash Bash mascot

Basher says he doesn't want to raise a stink about this but we still have some roads in the Milford area that were not claimed last year for clean-up. Since we in South Marysburgh are looked upon as being achievers in so many ways, let us all make an effort for 100% on the Trash Bash for 2004 on Saturday, April 24th.

You may feel that because some of these roads are back roads, basically uninhabited, that clean-up here isn't important. However, when we take our family or guests out to enjoy our beautiful natural areas to see the

Continued on page 14

Silent Auction

See Page 4

Inside this Issue...

- Community Circle Notes 3
- Two Kinds of People 5
- Blame 7
- Computer Tips 9
- Druella Acantha Malvina 11
- Misunderstandings 13
- Life in the Past 19