South Bay U.C.W.

The ladies met at South Bay United Church Hall on Wednesday, March 10th, at 1:30 p.m.

President Sandra Emlaw opened with our theme hymn, purpose and the Lord's Prayer.

Skip McCormack's devotional was taken from 1st John, Chapter 1, verses 19, 20, the Easter Theme. Good Friday represents Jesus' separation from us while Easter Sunday reunites us with Him. We are assured we will never walk alone.

Fifteen members and one visitor answered roll call with nine sick calls being made.

Secretary Maureen Rudd read the February Minutes which were accepted.

The ladies were reminded of the St. Patrick's Tea at Picton United Church on Wednesday, March 17th, 200 to 400 p.m. Our members are to bring a large can of apple or tomato juice to our next Meeting for our Anniversary Supper.

Everyone is urged to don their Easter bonnet and join the Ester Parade at Milford Town Hall on Saturday, April 10th. Meet at 10.30 for the 11:00 A.M. parade.

The ladies from Picton wondered if Des would do a few extra copies of the Marysburgh Mirror to put at the back of the church. Pat York volunteered to make the request. Brenda Minaker moved and Pat York seconded that we donate $100.00 to Women's Educational Visit to Zambia. Beads of Hope are used to represent the sponsorship for
