

The Circle ladies met at the home of Mary Creasy on Thursday, February 9th at 1:30 p.m.

President Mary opened with the thought - the steps you take today create the path you'll use tomorrow.

Since someone made a mistake in the coming events last month, we were treated to two thoughts for the month. Margaret Crouse's thought - sticking to your own values doesn't mean going it alone but rather finding others who share them.

Gillian Parker's was about A Poor Woman.

Marge Drury further entertained us with a cute joke.

Secretary Marge read the Minutes of the January Meeting which met with the approval of the group. Eight Members answered roll call by telling where they'd like to have a two week vacation.

Marg Crouse reported sending 3 cards to members in the Community. A Thank You card was received from Athol-South Marysburgh schools for the donation to buy books.

Treasurer Wilma Creasy reported our finances.

President Mary closed with some "Ever Wonder Why" Thoughts.

Mary served a valentine themed lunch which everyone enjoyed immensely and was thanked by Marg Crouse.
