The reason I am writing about beds is that Valerie and I having just recently returned from down east were comparing the different beds we encountered on our travels. On the cruise ships in the cabins we select there are Queen Size beds with duvets and 300 threads/inch for the sheets and pillows. Now you know why we have to have at least 500 threads to the inch it's because we got used to the linen on the cruise ships and can't live without it now!

We find the Hilton and the Westin hotels have a similar quality and in fact they advertise their linens as a selling point for staying in their hotels. Usually though you have to settle for a King size bed. We find that in the King size they are so wide you aren't sure if you partner is still there.

Those of you who know Shakespeare realize the horrible end that came to MacBeth. So while murder may have been the cause of his restlessness, lack of sleep was the cause of his and Lady MacBeth's downfall. Make sure you have a good night's sleep!
